Murray Irrigation

Full allocations for general security water entitlements

Murray Irrigation this morning announced an increase for general security (Class C) water entitlements holders to 100 percent of entitlement.

This follows an announcement by the NSW Office of Water (NOW) of an increase for NSW Murray Valley general security licence holders to 100 percent of entitlement.

A copy of the NOW announcement is available in the Water Resource Updates section of the Murray Irrigation website: www.murrayirrigation.com.au.
